MIRABELLE

There is a simple reason why our two marc spirits exist, and it's personal in nature: I simply like drinking the stuff. For me, the mirabelle is the finest of all stone fruit spirits, and has fascinated me since childhood, when my mother used to add a fine dram of mirabelle spirits to her freshly cooked mirabelle marmalade. The entire house would smell like it. The ripe fruits for our "Mirabelle" are hand picked off old trees in the Südpfalz. After meticulous distillation using a traditional still, the spirit's aromas are allowed to fully develop for three years before bottling.
